LOCAL BREVITIES.

Matters of Minor Moment in and About the City.

The Virginia Stars entertained a large audience in the Bridgeport opera house last night.

The wife of a potter of this city came down from East Liverpool on a bicycle yesterday.

Oliver Newland, an iron worker, of the South Side, died at his sister's residence, 2420 Eoff street, yesterday, and will be buried Thursday afternoon at 2 o'clock.

Considerable repairs and improvements have been made to Frank Albinger's saloon, South Jacob street, and preparations are being made to celebrate the improvements to-morrow night.

A still alarm brought the Eighth ward reel to the paint factory of Otto Auber, at the LaBelle landing, foot of Thirty-fifth street, shortly after 9 o'clock yesterday morning. The blaze was put out with a Babcock extinguisher before any damage was done.

The directors of the First National Bank, Bridgeport, held a regular meeting yesterday. Nothing but the usual routine business was transacted. No action was taken on the question of a successor to Cashier Clark; in fact, the matter was not mentioned.

This evening between 7 o'clock and midnight will occur the opening of "The Parlor," the saloon at the corner of Alleys B and 9, that has been opened by Messrs. William Winder and James Parker. It has been most handsomely fitted up and will no doubt draw a large patronage.

All Were Captured.

Three strangers yesterday afternoon succeeded in getting away with a pair of shoes from E. Highwart, the shoe dealer, 3742 Jacob street. They entered Highwart's store ostensibly to purchase shoes, and while the dealer was showing his goods, one of the men made off with a pair of shoes. They hurried down to Benson's landing, and rowed across the river to Bellaire, where they were afterwards captured by Marshal Bahra, and an officer, upon the description furnished by the Wheeling police. The men gave their names as George Webber, of Cleveland, Perry Williams, of Manchester, and Ben Seamon, of Pennsylvania. Highwart identified his goods, and the thieves refused to return without requisition papers, and as the charge is petty larceny, they may go to jail free.

GOOD liquors and fine cigars at "The Parlor," corner Alleys B and 9, the old "Buffet" stand. Opening to-night, 7 to 12. Music by Mayor's orchestra.

Bargains in Fine Wall Paper.

In order to reduce my stock of fine wall papers I will sell for the next ten days, all the better grades of Parlor, Hall and Dining Room Papers at cost. Papers that have been selling at from 25c to $1.25 will go at 15c to 20c per roll. Write for samples and say what room they are for. C. C. BOSTON, Corner Twelfth and Chapline Streets.

DON'T forget Y. M. C. A. gym. exhibit, Friday evening, at the Opera House. Reserved seats at House's.

Nagle & Zaleski, Ladies' Tailors. Dresses made to order from $10 up. Correspondence solicited. No. 1113 Main Street.

A FESTIVAL OF MELODY

And Song—Opera House Orchestra's Annual Concert at Wheeling Park Casino.

Never before has the Opera House orchestra made such preparations for their annual concert as they have inaugurated this year. The programme arranged for the concert to be given at Wheeling Park Casino on the evening of May 10 is one of unusual excellence and attractiveness, exploiting a variety of musical gems that cannot fail to come within the comprehension and appreciation of all degrees and taste.

Combined with these features the orchestra has been augmented by the selection of twelve artists of the different orchestras of Pittsburgh, the largest draft being made from the best performers of the celebrated Pittsburgh Symphony Orchestra, which delighted the musical people of Wheeling some months ago by their artistic and sympathetic work. The roster of the orchestra that will appear next Monday evening is as follows:

Director—Prof. E. W. Spell
First Violins—Prof. H. Schockey, E. Blumenberg, N. Hornholt, J. Evans.
Second Violins—Charles Vass, A. Farber, D. Vass, F. Ludwig.
Viola—J. Fehner.
Cello—Fred Meyer.
Basso—John H. Fischer.
Flute and Piccolo—John Huml, Emil Lang.
Clarinet—Prof. H. B. Grimm, Harry Jaeger.
Cornets—Julius Hood, G. E. Kurner.
Trombone—Lewis Husemen.
Timpany—William H. Paul.
Snare Drum—H. Lohman.
Bass Drum—F. P. Paul.

The twelve well-known instrumentalists from the various orchestras of Pittsburgh, who will assist the Opera House orchestra, are as follows:

First Violins—J. Sauerwein (Symphony).
F. Clement (Hijou), J. H. Behler (Alvin).
Second Violins—J. Oberhauser (Symphony).
J. Tuteur (Toerges).
Viola—Charles Baker (Symphony).
Principal Basso—Aug. Rose (Symphony).
Cello Soloist—Arthur Metzendorf (Symphony).
Oboe—Frans Schmiedekne (Symphony).
Bassoon—C. Nasser (Symphony).
French Horns—Oscar Loeblich, George Leppich (Symphony).

Among the names of the instrumentalists appearing none will be welcomed with more pleasure than that of the incomparable cello soloist, Mr. Arthur Metzendorf, who made such a pleasing impression here with the Pittsburgh Symphony organization, and later with the Philharmonic club in its recital at Arion hall.

The vocal part of the programme this year is exceedingly strong. Mr. George Albert Holden, tenor, of New York City, who has won great fame in oratorio and concert work, and who is the son of the celebrated composer of church music, Prof. A. S. Holden, comes to Wheeling with all the prestige of many metropolitan successes.

Of Mrs. Flora Williams, the most delightful and gifted soprano Wheeling has produced, Mr. H. W. Hughes, basso, whose name on a programme always excites the liveliest anticipations of an enjoyable performance, and Prof. Hermann Grimm, the wizard of that difficult instrument, the flute—these soloists are too well anchored in the favor of Wheeling audiences to require extended notice in these columns, for their past work speaks too eloquently for them.

There is no doubt but what this extraordinary offering will pack the Casino. Besides the Park itself will be an attraction scarcely secondary to the charm the music will exert over the visitors. The brilliantly lighted grounds, with the wonderful effects of the electric lamps on the foliage and shrubbery will lend a romanticism to the event and a more sensitive appreciation of the harmonies that will be produced in such a susceptible atmosphere.

The sale of reserved seats for the concert will begin Saturday morning at House's music store.

DEATH OF CHARLES SIMS.

One of the Most Public Figures in Wheeling's History Passes Away.

While it was not a surprise to the family and intimate friends of Mr. Charles Sims to hear of his death early yesterday morning, because of his long illness, still it was no less a shock to those who knew him well and best. Mr. Sims has long been a prominent and honorable figure in the history of Wheeling. He was born in St. Clairsville, Ohio, in 1832, and his first connection with public life in this city was his association with the Adams Express Company, in whose employ he continued for twenty-three years. His honorable record in the service of that company and his close connection with business men gave him an unquestionable standing in the community. After severing his connection with the express company he served as watchman at the postoffice, but for the last seven years he was engaged as the trusted employee of the Wheeling Title & Trust Company, which position he held at the time of his death. His disposition was genial; his manners very attractive, and his character was above reproach. He was a Mason, being a member of the Ohio Lodge of this city. He left seven children. Ned Sims, president of the Ohio Valley Trades and Labor Assembly; Robert, Charles and Hildt, and Lucinda, Mollie and Martha. The funeral will take place from his late residence, No. 103 Twelfth street, to-morrow afternoon at 2 o'clock, under the auspices of the Masonic Fraternity.

Vacates Its Old Quarters.

The Beethoven Singing Society has vacated its old quarters after nineteen years' occupancy, and now holds forth at Egerton hall, where commodious apartments have been secured. The first rehearsal in the new quarters took place Monday night. The society gives its annual excursion to up-the-river points next Sunday. The annual picnic of the society will be held at the fair grounds, either July 3 or 5, depending, of course, on which date will be selected as the "Glorious."

"THE PARLOR," with William Winder and James Parker in command, will be launched this evening between 7 and 8 o'clock. The old "Buffet" stand. Elegant free lunch will be served.

Y. M. C. A. gymnasium exhibition, Friday evening. Reserved seats at House's.

PROF. WALDEMAR GEPP'S Museum of Anatomy will remain in this city one week longer. There will be a special ladies' matinee on Friday afternoon, from 1 p. m. until 5 p. m. Lady doctors will give lectures in English and German. The exhibition is instructive as well as beneficial. Located at 411 Market street. Admission 15 cents.

DON'T forget Y. M. C. A. gym. exhibit, Friday evening, at the Opera House. Reserved seats at House's.

UNCONDITIONAL surrender, is the only terms these famous little pills known as DeWitt's Little Early Risers will make with constipation, sick headache, corner or Market and Twelfth streets; Bowie & Co., Bridgeport; Peabody & Son, Benwood.

+ SECOND SIGHT. +

When you feel you have tried everything and everyone, consult us. A daily occurrence is the surprise shown by benefited patients at our office.

Do you have headache? Do your eyes water? Do they burn or smart? Does print run together when reading? Feel as if some before the eyes? All these things are signs of eye trouble. Have a desire to rub the eyes, twitching? Do you have weak eyes? Does the light pain them? For any trouble of your eyes consult this man. During this season we devote much time to children's eyes. We make glasses at popular prices (one reason of our popularity)—make a careful examination free of charge. The best proof of our success is the number of recommendations from our old patients.
